WHAT TO DO IN AN EMERGENCY:

- In case of emergency dial 999 and ask for Cumbria Police, then Mountain Rescue.
- Make sure you tell the operator that you require Cumbria Police.
- Give all the details of the incident – location, details of people involved including their sex and ages, injuries, contact phone number.
- Stay where you can be contacted on this number, unless instructed otherwise.
- The police will mobilise the mountain rescue team who may contact you for more details.
- If you need to make further contact dial 999 again.

A vital search and rescue service

Cockermouth Mountain Rescue Team are a group of unpaid volunteers who give their time 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, to provide a search and rescue service for those who get into difficulty in North West Cumbria. As a registered charity the Team rely entirely on donations and receive no government funding.

To ensure the Team has up-to-date equipment, to provide its vital service, over £46,000 is needed each year to meet running costs.

You can make a difference

You can support the Team by leaving a legacy in your Will. A gift from you will have an enormous impact, helping the Team to help more people, for years to come.

Your donation makes all the difference.

Helmet £60

Rope £270

Defibrillator £1,100

Vehicle £48,000

Remember Cockermouth MRT in your will

A legacy will cost you nothing in your lifetime. It may even reduce inheritance tax on your estate because legacies to charities are tax free.

How to leave a legacy

The process of leaving a legacy is very simple. If you are writing your Will or updating one, just state what you wish to leave us and say clearly that it is for the Cockermouth Mountain Rescue Team, PO Box 73, Cockermouth, Cumbria, CA13 3AE, with our registered charity number – 506956.
